

From remote teaching to online learning

The ETS Instructional Design Office invites you to our four-part series to enhance your remote teaching for a sustainable online format.

Faculty will be guided through the process and will emerge with a course (or courses) that are improved for teaching online.

Participants will be paired with an instructional design assistant to answer questions and help build the online course within Canvas.

Part 1 – Online Course Basics & Creating Online Course Outlines

- 4/8 2:00-4:00 pm

Part 2 – Course Inventory

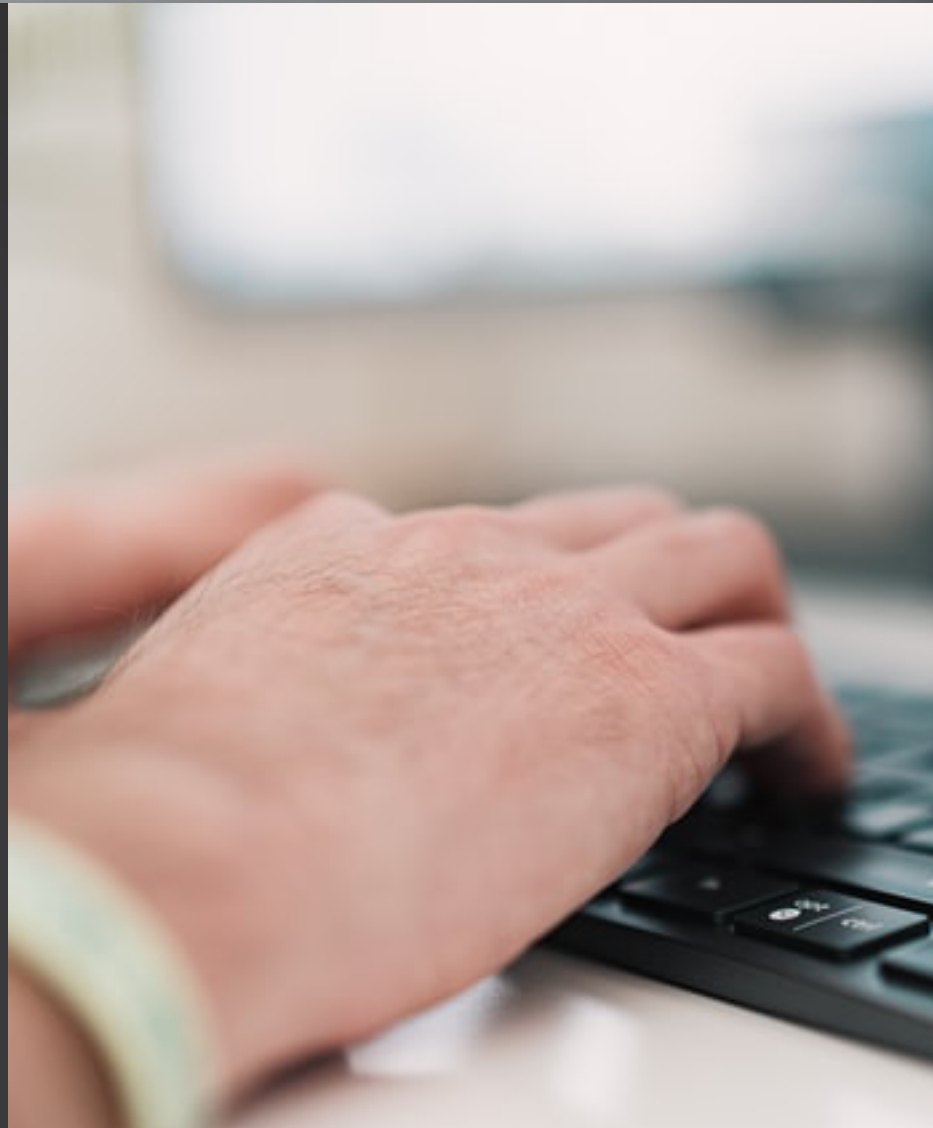

- 4/15 2:00-4:00 pm

Part 3 – Rethinking Course Control

- 4/22 2:00-4:00 pm

Part 4 – Building the Course in Canvas

- 4/29 2:00-4:00 pm
